

Please leave satellite radio alone! The instant weather and traffic is a godsend in this area of terrible traffic conditions. Indeed, since I got satellite radio, I have been saved many hours of commuting simply by following the instant traffic updates. The local radio stations do not provide an adequate service.